

Lectures and Seminars

Brenda Davis is an authoritative, entertaining and passionate speaker. She has presented at nutrition and health conferences in over a dozen countries. Book her for your next medical, nutrition or health conference; for employee seminars or for lectures to the general public.

Lecture Fee Schedule: $1500* per day + expenses.

* fee is negotiable for non-profits. Please contact Brenda directly to discuss fees for services.

Quotes from Colleagues and Lecture Attendees:

“Brenda Davis is one of the most informed and reliable voices on vegan and vegetarian nutritional issues that I know. When I have questions, she is the expert I go to for clarity. Her knowledge is extraordinary and her work is impeccable. Anyone with an interest in vegetarian or vegan nutrition who has an opportunity to hear Brenda speak should leap at the chance.” – John Robbins

“When I look for nutritional advice the first person I go to is Brenda Davis. She is outstanding.” – Howard F. Lyman

“I was privileged to organize and attend a public lecture given by Brenda Davis in Canberra, Australia in February 2015. The lecture was a two-hour powerhouse performance which both informed and captivated the 400 people who attended. Brenda has the rare gift of being able to make complex information about nutrition accessible to the lay person and the expert, sharing her knowledge and decades of experience in a compelling yet down-to-earth fashion. Built on a strong foundation of evidence-based scientific facts, Brenda's lecture also provided the audience with take-home tips and hints that everyone could draw on to improve their health through better nutrition and exercise. Her knowledge and wisdom is impressive and her skill of imparting this expertise to an audience is first class." – Nick Samaras, Canberra, Australia